Dear Sir or Madam,

My father, William Sigourney Hough, passed away May 21, 2017 at the age of 93. He had participated in many interesting adventures in his lifetime, and always intended to write an autobiography. Thus, he had many, many boxes of "stuff" saved from his past.

It is only recently that I have opened some of the boxes, and so discovered that much of the material is items that my grandmother, Myrtis Isabelle (Sigourney) Hough saved. Most of it has to do with sentimental remembrances and either originally belonging to my grandfather, William Frederic Hough or to herself. It appears that Grampa was quite the character and was well known in Greenfield, Massachusetts. Not only was he a long-time employee of the Miller Falls Company, he fancied himself as a writer and a singer. Apparently, he was in high demand for singing engagements and had an exceptional baritone voice.

I digress. I simply cannot keep all of the accumulated memorabilia. As some of it quite old (early 1900's), I simply hate to just throw it away. I am sure that there is someone out there who would enjoy seeing it or possible even adding it to a collection somewhere.

I am therefore gifting you with the enclosed document(s). Please do with them as you see fit: save them, pass them along, or trash them. It is up to you now. I hope you enjoy seeing and/or reading my enclosure(s).

Warm regards,

Cynthia (Hough) Stulpin
